

JOB POSTING

ARCHITECTURAL/CIVIL ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGIST

FEBRUARY 10, 2025

Rus-Tec Engineering is seeking an Architectural/Civil Engineering Technologist to join our team on a full-time basis.

The ideal candidate has excellent technical drafting skills, can visualize and solve problems, and has a strong desire to continuously learn and grow in experience and capabilities. This role will involve a variety of drafting and design work related to commercial and residential structural design on Rus-Tec's Building Engineering team.

Duties

- Creating 3D models and drawings in Revit, Inventor, & AutoCAD for various projects
- Assistance with structural design, technical documentation, administration
- Creation, review and filing of engineering outputs and deliverables
- Project and field support work for existing equipment & structures and new fabrication
- Utilize miscellaneous structural software's to design and draft technical documentation

Experience

- Diploma in Architectural Technology or equivalent
- Experience and aptitude with various modelling software, including Revit, AutoCAD, Inventor

Rus-Tec Engineering is a small and dynamic firm located in Devon, AB, serving customers locally and internationally. We strive to meet our customers' needs by offering creative and practical design solutions, timely delivery, and continuous support.

Our employees are offered competitive wages, extended health benefits, and remote work options.

To apply, email your Resume to: officeadmin@rus-tec.ca

